Academic librarians, faculty, and administrators with an interest in Open Educational Resources are invited to attend a strategic planning summit to consider OER at a statewide level.

November 15-16, 2018

The University of Texas at San Antonio

We hope to develop a set of shared goals and strategies that can be implemented across the state.

Information about the event and how to register has been distributed to library deans and directors.

There will be no registration fee, but the number of attendees will initially be capped at two per institution.
