Four hurdles

Creating an infrastructure

Selecting the right equipment

Deciding when to license, when to rely on fair use,
and when to send students to commercial vendors

Identifying appropriate staff to do the work

Case Studies

James Madison University

University of North Texas

Two approaches

Purchasing commercially available packages

Developing and serving local content

Need and demand: two scenarios

Scenario 1: purchase/license the streaming file

Scenario 2: create the streaming file yourself

Challenges or Hurdles

Deciding when to license, when to rely on fair use,
and when to send students to commercial vendors

Creating an infrastructure
