A Consortial Response to Data Sharing: The TDL Data Management Pilot Project

TCDL AUSTIN, TX APRIL 28&29, 2014

Debra Hanken Kurtz
Executive Director, Texas Digital Library
Why are we doing this?

‘Government information shall be managed as an asset throughout its life cycle to promote interoperability and openness, and, wherever possible and legally permissible, to ensure that data are released to the public in ways that make the data easy to find, accessible, and usable.’
Who are we?
What’s our approach?

Lean, Agile

- Data are open
- Consortial – scalable
- Exploit Existing Resources
What we’ve done so far

- Developed project charter
- Identified pilot data
- Installed DSpace 4.1
What’s next?
What are areas of work?

- Submission Workflow
- Metadata
- Researcher Engagement
Other TDL work on data management
